BLAME IT ON THE MOVIES
Words & Music by
Ronny Whyte

Verse:

As a child I spent my Saturdays
At double feature matinees.
Boy, they were really slick!
The musicals and dramatic scenes
That played upon the silver screens
Were all so real,
Why do I feel
Life's like a Grade B flick?

Chorus I:

If I expect to find romance
With love scenes underscored,
Blame It on the Movies

If I go into a song and dance
Whenever I get bored,
Blame it on the Movies.

I act like a clown
When I'm feeling down
Or else I sit and sigh.
Days seem unreal
Sometimes I feel
Life is passing me by.

So if I'm full of laughs and tears,
And if I long for bygone years,
My only excuse:
Blame It On The Movies.

Chorus II:

If I expect to meet one day
The one that I'll love best,
Blame It On The Movies

And if I hope we'll ride away
Into the golden West,
Blame It On The Movies.

Blame It On The Movies - 4

Days drag on	(Alt.) Days hurry by
My hope is gone	I'm wondering why
I'm one unhappy creature	I'm not happily mated
The previews have run	When do I get to
The cartoon is done	Play the scenes
Let's get to the main feature.	Usually X- Rated?

So if I'm full of doubts and fears
And if I hope for happy years,
My only excuse:
Blame It On the Movies.
