Verse:

First dates aren't easy, with questions in the air:
 Does she like this dim café, the way I part my hair?
 First dates aren't easy, so I've a handy device:
 A list of questions and comment
 That are good for breaking the ice.

Chorus:

What do you do?
 Where do you live?
 East side or West side of town?
 How do you cope when your shrink leaves New York?

What is your rent?
 Where do you train?
 Do you like uptown or down?
 Love is a wine I'm eager to uncork.

Say, have you been here before?
 How can we pay our debts?
 I've got a lawyer from hell.
 What happened to the Mets?

What do you earn?
 Where do you jog?
 Which is your Zodiac sign?
 And later, will it be your place or mine?

2nd Bridge

So do you follow the Knicks?
 I've got five I.R.A.s
 I really want to direct.
 Let's go and hear Bill Mays.

Do you have pets?
 Do you want kids?
 Do you drink champagne or Coors?
 And later, will it be my place or yours?
